Joseph Saveri Law Firm, LLP Firm Resume

FIRM HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

The Joseph Saveri Law Firm, LLP is one of the country's most acclaimed and successful boutique firms. It achieves ground-breaking results for plaintiffs in antitrust law, class actions, complex business disputes, securities litigation, consumer protection, intellectual property, and qui tam/whistleblower cases, in federal and state courts throughout the United States and across the globe.

The Firm was founded in 2012 by Joseph Saveri. Since then, it has led several groundbreaking and precedent-setting cases. It has served as lead and co-counsel on a variety of cases involving: challenges to price-fixing; monopolization; illegal reverse payments; “pay-for-delay” agreements involving the drugs Cipro, Lidoderm, Restasis, and Opana ER; and “no-poach” agreements restricting hiring and recruiting at major corporations. These cases cover diverse industries including pharmaceuticals, high-technology, electronics, banking and financial services, transportation, and sports leagues.

The Firm is widely regarded as one of the nation’s leading law firms; it has established a track record leading and prosecuting some of the most significant cases across the United States. Its attorneys have recovered over $4 billion in settlements and successful resolutions for their clients, and the Firm has received many honors, including:

★ Firm Awards ★

AMERICAN ANTITRUST INSTITUTE

In 2020, Anupama Reddy was recognized by the American Antitrust Institute for “Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement by a Young Lawyer” (for work performed in In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation). In 2017, the Firm was an Honoree for “Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement in Private Law Practice” for its success in In re Cipro Cases I and II. In 2015, the Firm was a Finalist for this award for its success in In re High-Tech Employee Antitrust Litigation. The awards are part of the American Antitrust Institute’s Antitrust Enforcement Awards, which recognize achievements in antitrust litigation by legal practitioners and economists.

BENCHMARK LITIGATION

The Firm was recognized in 2020 as one of the best in California in the “competition/antitrust” and “dispute resolution” practice areas. Partners Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams were honored in the same field as “National Practice Area Stars” and “Local Litigation Stars.”

Benchmark Litigation, based in the United Kingdom, New York City, and Hong Kong, researches and ranks law firms and lawyers based on transactional advice. Research is conducted through extensive interviews with litigators, dispute resolution specialists, and their clients to identify the leading litigators and firms. During these interviews, it examines recent casework handled by law firms and asks individual litigators to provide their professional opinions on peers and practitioners within their jurisdiction or practice area. Each annual research process culminates in the publication of law firm rankings, individual lawyer ratings, and firm editorial content.

★ Firm Awards Con't

Joseph Saveri Law Firm, Inc.

BEST LAWYERS/U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT

Since 2013, the Firm has been annually selected for inclusion in Best Law Firms, an annual publication by U.S. News & World Report and Best Lawyers. It is ranked among the top tiers in "Litigation—Antitrust" nationally, and "Litigation—Antitrust" and "Mass Tort Litigation/Class Actions" in San Francisco. Firms included in the Best Law Firms list are recognized for professional excellence with persistently impressive ratings from clients and peers. Achieving a tiered ranking signals a unique combination of quality law practice and breadth of legal expertise. To be eligible for a ranking, a firm must have a lawyer selected by Best Lawyers to The Best Lawyers in America, a publication which recognizes the top five percent of practicing attorneys in the United States. Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams have been meritoriously selected.

CHAMBERS AND PARTNERS

Chambers and Partners has ranked The Firm "Band 1" (highest ranking) in its "Antitrust: Mainly Plaintiff—California" category: currently the only firm in California to receive this honor. Chambers has also ranked the Firm as one of the top 16 U.S. firms in its "Antitrust: Mainly Plaintiff-Nationwide" category. In 2021, it shortlisted the Firm as an "Outstanding Firm for Pro Bono" for its Diversity & Inclusion Awards: North America 2021.

Firm partners Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams are currently ranked "Band 1" attorneys by Chambers in its "Antitrust: Plaintiff—USA—Nationwide" and "Antitrust: Mainly Plaintiff—California" categories. Their dual "Band 1" rankings make the Firm one of only two nationwide to contribute multiple "Band 1" designees to these categories. Joseph Saveri has been ranked a "Band 1" attorney in these categories since 2014. Chambers reports him as "smart, fair, and zealous in his advocacy," and as a "great lawyer" who is "hard-working and possesses excellent judgment about how to prosecute antitrust and consumer protection cases." Steven Williams has been ranked "Band 1" or "Band 2" in one or both categories since 2015. Chambers regards him as "a real force in antitrust" who is "dogged in the pursuit of justice for his clients and exercises great judgment in complex litigation." "He is smart, easy to work with, and professional in all aspects of the practice," it added.

London-based Chambers ranks law firms and individual lawyers in bands from 1-6, with 1 being the best. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, client service, commercial vision and business understanding, diligence, value for money (cost-effective staffing and organization), depth of team, professional conduct, and other factors important to clients.

DAILY JOURNAL (CALIFORNIA)

The Firm has twice been recognized as one of the "Top Boutiques in California," a contest that selects and reports on the top 20 boutique law firms in California. The profiles have highlighted the Firm's growth, case leadership, and its advancement of antitrust law on prominent cases such as In re Cipro Cases I and II, In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, and Scola v. Facebook, Inc. Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams have received several Daily Journal "Top in California" individual awards in various categories.

The Daily Journal Corporation, a Los Angeles-based publishing and technology company, features Interview-based profiles covering judicial philosophy, representative decisions, and recent cases.

★ Firm Awards *Con'tLAWDRAGON

Joseph Saveri, Steven Williams, and Ronnie Seidel Spiegel have been selected 2019-present for Lawdragon legal media company's "500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers" online guide. The guide, first published in 2007, presents Lawdragon's recognition of the best of the U.S. plaintiff bar. The 500 lawyers selected bring their cases as individual matters as well as in class actions that are increasingly going global. Lawdragon, based in New York City, provides free online news and editorial features—including its well-known guides to the nation's leading lawyers—as well as content, marketing, and branding services for lawyers and firms.

THE LEGAL 500

From 2019-present, the Firm was one of a select few nationwide recognized for excellence in the United Kingdom-based research and ranking service's "United States Antitrust Civil Litigation/Class Actions: Plaintiff" category. Its attorneys have also received favorable rankings. The Legal 500 assesses the strengths of law firms in over 150 jurisdictions. Its rankings are based on feedback from 300,000 clients worldwide, detailed submissions from law firms, interviews with leading private practice lawyers, and a team of researchers with unrivaled experience in the legal market.

MARTINDALE HUBBELL

Two Firm partners have achieved Martindale Hubbell's highest rating—"AV Preeminent." Joseph Saveri has achieved this ranking since 2008; Steven Williams has done likewise since 2002. Martindale-Hubbell's Peer Review Ratings are an objective indicator of a lawyer's high ethical standards and professional ability. Attorneys receive Peer Review Ratings based on evaluations by other members of the bar and the judiciary in the United States and Canada.

SUPER LAWYERS

Several of the Firm's attorneys have been recognized by Super Lawyers, part of Thomson Reuters, which rates outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high-degree of peer recognition, professional achievement, and excellence. The Super Lawyers list recognizes no more than five percent of attorneys in each state. Partner Joseph Saveri has been rated a "Super Lawyer" annually since 2006 and was named to the "Top 100 Northern California Super Lawyers" in 2015-2016 and 2019-present. Partner Steven Williams has been annually rated a "Super Lawyer" since 2005 and was named to the "Top 100 Northern California Super Lawyers" in 2016-present.

WHO'S WHO LEGAL/GLOBAL COMPETITION REVIEW

Firm partners Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams have been consistently selected as two of the top plaintiff attorneys worldwide in Who's Who Legal: Competition, a publication of Who's Who Legal and Global Competition Review. Mr. Saveri has been praised as "a distinguished antitrust practitioner on the plaintiff side." Mr. Williams has been commended as a "top-notch competition lawyer" and a "highly intelligent strategic thinker." Mr. Saveri has been selected for this honor since 2015, as has Mr. Williams since 2014. Since 2019, Joseph Saveri and Steven Williams have also been profiled in Thought Leaders: Competition, a publication of Who's Who Legal.

Who's Who Legal, a prestigious United Kingdom-based legal ranking service, has identified the foremost legal practitioners and consulting experts in business law based upon comprehensive, independent research. It is dedicated to identifying the world's leading lawyers across multiple practice areas and publishes a series of guides throughout the year. Global Competition Review provides a subscription-based news and resource service (both online and print) and yearly hosts several live events.

Leadership
Positions in Cases
Nationwide

With 30 years of civil litigation experience, Mr. Saveri has handled cases involving numerous industries, including: banking and financial services, insurance, energy, pharmaceuticals, agricultural products, computer hardware, computer software, manufacturing inputs, travel and transportation, paper products, cosmetics, and consumer electronics. He has established himself as one of the country's top litigators in the antitrust field.

Mr. Saveri has investigated, prosecuted, and successfully resolved numerous antitrust class actions and other complex cases. He has served both as a court-appointed leader of such efforts and as a valued member of the teams operating under the leadership of others. As lead or co-lead counsel in many of these cases, he has taken a personal leadership role in organizing litigation, setting strategy, establishing and directing teams of lawyers, and assigning specific tasks to teams of attorneys in a way that ensures the efficient use of resources and maximizes the talents of the litigation team. Throughout these cases, he has displayed the energy, vision, and commitment that leadership requires, combined with the ability to listen, share, and work cooperatively so that the litigation team operates equitably, efficiently, and without friction.

Mr. Saveri and the Firm serve or have served as lead counsel in many high-profile cases, including most recently Capacitors, Titanium Dioxide, High-Tech Employees, Scola v. Facebook, Inc., and California's Cipro litigation. Over the past decade, his fellow partner Steven Williams has played a lead role in many of the most prominent antitrust class cases and been named lead or co-lead counsel more often than perhaps any other attorney in the United States. Overall, the Firm's attorneys are accomplished and successful in all phases of litigation and have been awarded by the American Antitrust Institute, Chambers and Partners, Martindale Hubbell, The Legal 500, Who's Who Legal, and Super Lawyers for their distinguished leadership. They lecture and write on many topics, are actively involved in numerous legal organizations, and are multi-lingual and from diverse backgrounds.

The Firm has a strong commitment to pro bono representation. It frequently works with the Northern District of California's Federal Pro Bono Project, which operates in conjunction with the Bar Association of San Francisco's Justice and Diversity Center. The JDC provides pro bono services to underserved San Francisco residents and communities, and the organizations that serve them. Many Firm attorneys participate in this project and have received Court praise for their successful results achieved for their clients.

CASE PROFILES

The Firm has been a successful leader in cases covering antitrust, class actions, complex business disputes, consumer protection, and other practice areas, on behalf of national and international consumers, purchasers, and employees across diverse industries.

The Firm handles antitrust cases, class actions, and complex litigation in federal and state courts throughout the United States. Prominent past and current cases in which the Firm or Mr. Saveri serves or has served include:

IN RE CAPACITORS ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 3:14-cv-03264-JD, 3:17-md-02801-JD (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm is sole Lead Counsel for a class of direct purchasers of capacitors used in electronic devices. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants—over twenty corporations and corporate families—formed a cartel and conspired to fix, raise, and stabilize prices in the multi-billion-dollar market for aluminum, tantalum, and film capacitors. The Firm represents the class as Plaintiffs in a civil class action.

Settlements totaling $439.55 million have been reached with most Defendants. Trial against Defendants who have not settled will occur in 2021. In the criminal case, eight capacitors manufacturers and two individual executives have pleaded guilty and been sentenced for violating federal antitrust laws.

IN RE CIPRO CASES I AND II

J.C.C.P. Nos. 4154, 4220 (San Diego County Sup. Ct.)

The Firm is Co-Lead Counsel for consumers who purchased Cipro, a blockbuster antibiotic drug. Plaintiffs alleged that Bayer Corporation, Barr Laboratories, two other generic drug companies, and other Defendants entered into an unlawful agreement to keep a generic version of the drug off the market, which allowed Bayer to sell Cipro at inflated prices. In 2013, the California Superior Court for the County of San Diego approved a $74 million class action settlement between Bayer and the Class. In 2015, the California Supreme Court reversed the judgment of the Court of Appeal and remanded the case for further proceedings. In that decision, the California Supreme Court ruled in Plaintiffs' favor and adopted a "structured" rule of reason as the standard for adjudicating reverse payment antitrust cases. Following remand to the Superior Court, Plaintiffs reached a $100 million settlement agreement with Defendants Hoechst Marion Roussel, The Rugby Group, Inc., and Watson Pharmaceuticals, which the Court approved in 2016. In 2017, on the eve of trial, Plaintiffs settled with Barr, the sole remaining Defendant, for $225 million, bringing the total Class recovery to $399 million: a record for this type of case.

SCOLA V. FACEBOOK, INC.

No. 18CIV05135 (San Mateo County Sup. Ct.)

The Firm is co-counsel in an action against Facebook alleging that a Plaintiff Class of content moderators responsible for viewing and removing offensive and disturbing content from Facebook users are suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder and other trauma-related injuries because they were not being properly protected by the social media company. In 2021, the Class reached a ground-breaking final settlement for $52 million and workplace improvements. The settlement provides significant relief to over 14,000 content moderators who worked for Facebook's vendors in California, Arizona, Texas, and Florida.

IN RE HIGH-TECH EMPLOYEES ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 5:11-cv-02509-LHK (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm served as Co-Lead Class Counsel for a certified class of over 64,000 employees of leading technology companies against their employers for their alleged agreements to restrict recruiting to suppress wages. In this highly publicized case, Defendants Google Inc., Apple Inc., Adobe Systems Inc., and Intel Corporation agreed in 2015 to $415 million in settlements. Prior to that, Intuit Inc., Lucasfilm, Ltd., and Pixar agreed to separate settlements totaling $20 million.

IN RE TITANIUM DIOXIDE ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 1:10-cv-00318-RDB (D. Md.)

The Firm served as Co-Lead Counsel to a class of direct purchasers of titanium dioxide who alleged that several primary suppliers engaged in an unlawful conspiracy to raise, maintain, or stabilize prices for titanium dioxide in the United States. The case produced a $163.5 million settlement.

IN RE RESTASIS (CYCLOSPORINE OPHTHALMIC EMULSION) ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 1:18-md-02819-NG-LB (E.D.N.Y.)

The Firm is Co-Lead Counsel for End-Payer Plaintiffs in an antitrust class action filed against Allergan, Inc. for an alleged scheme to delay generic competition to Allergan's blockbuster Restasis drug (used primarily for the treatment of chronic dry eyes). The Firm brought suit on behalf of its client and named class representative, the Self-Insured Schools of California, a Joint Powers Authority providing health benefits to over 300,000 public school district employees and their family members. Plaintiffs allege that Allergan unlawfully extended its monopoly in the market for Restasis through a series of fraudulent and anticompetitive acts. The suit is currently part of a multidistrict litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Class certification has been granted. In 2021, the parties reached an agreement in principle to resolve the case.

IN RE: XYREM (SODIUM OXYBATE) ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 5:20-MD-02966-LHK (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm represents Plaintiff, purchaser Self-Insured Schools of California, in a multi-district litigation antitrust suit in which it serves on the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee. Plaintiff and a potential class of other purchasers are insurers, health and welfare plans, and consumers seeking relief from indirectly paying for and/or providing reimbursement for purchases of Xyrem (an oral narcolepsy drug) at supra-competitive prices. Facing the impact of competitive market forces, Defendant Jazz (Xyrem manufacturer) allegedly turned to an anticompetitive scheme to delay generic entry and maintain its monopoly. Plaintiffs seek class certification, damages, and other injunctive and equitable relief.

IN RE LIDODERM ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 3:14-md-02521-WHO (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm served as End-Payers' Liaison Counsel in a class action lawsuit brought by indirect purchasers of Lidoderm against Endo Pharmaceuticals, Teikoku, and Actavis Inc. Plaintiffs claimed that Defendants entered into an illegal reverse payment agreement in which Endo provided nearly $100 million worth of branded Lidoderm and additional consideration to Actavis to keep generic lidocaine patches off the market. Plaintiffs alleged that the agreement delayed generic competition and caused Plaintiffs to pay higher prices. In 2017, the Court granted Plaintiffs' motion to certify a class of Lidoderm End-Payers. The case settled in early 2018, shortly before trial, for $105 million.

IN RE OPANA ER ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 1:14-cv-10150 (N.D. Ill.)

The Firm represents Plaintiffs in a proposed class action brought by indirect purchasers against brand and generic manufacturers of Opana ER. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants Endo Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Impax Laboratories entered an illegal “pay-for-delay” or reverse payment agreement whereby Endo provided Impax over $100 million in cash, as well as other valuable consideration, in exchange for Impax’s promise to keep generic versions of Opana ER off the market. Plaintiffs allege that this prevented generic competition and resulted in higher prices. In 2021, the Court granted class certification to Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs and End Payor Plaintiffs.

MEIJER V. ABBOTT LABORATORIES

Nos. 4:07-cv-5470, 4:07-cv-5702, 4:07-cv-5985 (N.D. Cal.)

Mr. Saveri served as Liaison Counsel on behalf of the class of Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs in the Norvir Antitrust Litigation. The case involved claims under Section One and Section Two of the Sherman Act in connection with the sale, marketing, and pricing of the bundled drugs Norvir and Kaletra by Abbott Laboratories. Mr. Saveri participated in all phases of the litigation, including trial. Among other highlights, his work during jury selection of the case resulted in the landmark decision by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in SmithKline Beecham Corp. v. Abbott Laboratories, 740 F.3d 471 (9th Cir. 2014), confirming that equal protection prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation in jury selection and that the Supreme Court’s decision in Batson v. Kentucky, 476 U.S. 79 (1986), applies in civil cases. Following jury selection, the Direct Purchasers settled their claims in full for $52 million.

CUNG LE V. ZUFFA, LLC

No. 2:15-cv-01045-RFB-BNW (D. Nev.)

The Firm is Co-Lead Counsel for professional mixed martial arts (MMA) fighters in a class action against MMA promoter Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) and its parent company Zuffa LLC. Plaintiffs allege that the UFC illegally acquired and maintained monopoly power in the market for promoting Professional MMA Bouts and monopsony power in the market for Professional MMA Fighters’ Services and used that monopoly and monopsony power to suppress compensation for MMA fighters who fought for the UFC. Motions for class certification and summary judgment are fully briefed. The Court stated at a December 2020 hearing that it would be certifying the Class.

JONES V. VARSITY BRANDS

No. 2:20-cv-02892 (W.D. Tenn.)

The Firm represents a class of competitive cheer families against Varsity Brands, LLC; Varsity Spirit, LLC; Varsity Spirit Fashion & Supplies, LLC; U.S. All Star Federation, Inc.; and other co-conspirators. Plaintiffs allege Defendants have abused Varsity's market power to raise, fix, and stabilize the prices charged and associated with competitive cheer. As a result, cheer athletes, together with their parents, friends, and families, have been overcharged by the Defendants, who have obtained millions of dollars in supracompetitive illegal profits.

GIORDANO V. SAKS INCORPORATED

No. 1:20-cv-00833-MKB-CLP (E.D.N.Y.)

The Firm is Interim Co-Lead Class Counsel in a "no-poach" class action, alleging that Defendants Saks Incorporated; Saks & Company LLC; Saks Fifth Avenue LLC; Louis Vuitton USA Inc.; Fendi North America, Inc.; Loro Piana & C. Inc.; Gucci America, Inc.; Prada USA Corp.; and Brunello Cucinelli, USA, Inc. agreed not to hire one another's luxury retail employees. Plaintiffs are former sales professionals who sought employment opportunities with other Defendants. Plaintiffs allege the illegal agreements restrain competition for luxury retail employees working for Defendants. Plaintiffs seek damages and injunctive relief.

JESSICA ROBINSON V. JACKSON HEWITT, INC. AND TAX SERVICES OF AMERICA, INC.

No. 2:19-cv-9066 (D. N.J.)

The Firm is Interim Co-Lead Counsel for Plaintiffs in an antitrust class action against Defendants Jackson Hewitt, Inc. and Tax Services of America, Inc. Plaintiffs are individuals who work or have worked for Jackson Hewitt, a tax preparation services provider and franchisor, and for franchise locations of Jackson Hewitt. From approximately January 2000 through December 2018, Defendants and other co-conspirators agreed not to compete for employees and potential employees, including agreements not to solicit, recruit, or hire without prior approval each other's personnel. Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief and recovery of damages arising from Defendants' violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act.

JANE DOE V. YOUTUBE, INC.

No. 20-CV-07493-YGR (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm represents Plaintiff and a nation-wide class of content moderators. The suit alleges that content moderators responsible for viewing and removing offensive and disturbing videos and images posted by YouTube users are suffering from psychological trauma and post-traumatic stress disorder, and are not being protected properly by the social media company. Plaintiffs seek workplace improvements and compensation for exposure to objectionable content on YouTube's platform.

IN RE JANUARY 2021 SHORT SQUEEZE TRADING LITIGATION

No. 3:21-cv-00781 (N.D. Cal.), No. 1:21-md-02989-ALTONAGA/Torres (S.D. Fla.)

The Firm is Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel in a suit on behalf of a proposed class of retail investors against Robinhood Markets, Inc. and various brokerages, investment funds, and other co-conspirators who allegedly entered into an illegal scheme designed to shield themselves from massive industry losses they had incurred due to their highly speculative short selling strategies. Plaintiffs allege that they and other retail investors continue to be injured due to a large, overarching conspiracy among Defendants to stop them from buying stocks in open and fair public securities markets. Plaintiffs seek damages recovery and injunctive relief. The Firm leads the antitrust tranche (group) of claims.

IN RE DENTAL SUPPLIES ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 1:16-cv-00696-BMC-GRB (E.D.N.Y.)

The Firm serves as a member of the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee in a class action of direct purchasers against the primary dental product distributors in the United States. Plaintiffs allege that Patterson Companies, Inc., Henry Schein, Inc., and Benco Dental Supply Company illegally boycotted competitor dental product distributors to maintain and extend their dominant position in the market for dental supplies and equipment. As a result, Plaintiffs (and similarly situated dental practices) paid inflated prices for important dental products, including imaging devices, dental chairs, high-tech equipment, sterilization products, and other related materials. Final judgment and a Court order granting an $80 million settlement was reached in 2019.

IN RE EPIPEN MARKETING, SALES PRACTICES, AND ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 17-md-02785-DDC-TJJ (D. Kan)

The Firm is on the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in this multidistrict litigation case alleging that Mylan, Pfizer, and their related companies engaged in federal and state antitrust violations, RICO violations, and violations of state consumer protection laws with regard to the EpiPen autoinjector drug device. Defendants raised their prices by hundreds of percent and forced consumers to buy two EpiPens at a time instead of one in order to maximize their profits. In August 2018, the Court denied Defendants' motions to dismiss as to the vast majority of Plaintiffs' claims. Trial is anticipated in late 2021-early 2022.

PASKENTA BAND OF NOMLAKI INDIANS V. CROSBY

No. 2:15-cv-00538-MCE-CMK (E.D. Cal.)

The Firm is Co-Lead Counsel in a suit in which it represents the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians pursuing the recovery of tens of millions of dollars converted by former tribal officials. The Tribe brings civil RICO and various state law claims alleging that these formal tribal officials—with a number of associated individuals, banks, and benefit providers—operated a RICO Enterprise that facilitated the looting of tribal moneys. These former tribal officials spent the Tribe's funds on luxury homes, expensive cars, private jet travel, exclusive entertainment and vacations, and their personal expenses.

IN RE GENERIC PHARMACEUTICALS PRICING ANTITRUST LITIGATION

No. 2:16-md-02724-CMR (E.D. Pa.)

The Firm is on the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee for End-Payor Plaintiffs and its client, the Self-Insured Schools of California, and similarly situated U.S. consumers and insurers, against dozens of generic drug manufacturers in this broad multidistrict litigation. The antitrust suit charges the Defendants with conspiring to fix and raise prices for over 30 different generic pharmaceutical drugs, forcing consumers to pay inflated prices for medication to treat a wide variety of illnesses and diseases. In 2019, the Court denied Defendants' joint motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' overarching conspiracy claims. In 2020, the Court selected two bellwether cases for the private Plaintiffs, including the Firm's End-Payor Plaintiff clients, concerning the drugs Clobetasol and Clomipramine.

SPRADLING V. SURGICAL CARE AFFILIATES, LLC

No. 21-cv-01324 (N.D. Ill.)

As Interim Co-Lead Counsel, the Firm represents a potential Class of senior-level employees in an antitrust suit filed against Defendants Surgical Care Affiliates, United Surgical Partners International, and at least one other unnamed healthcare service provider. Plaintiffs allege Defendants entered into “no-poach” agreements not to compete for senior-level employees in the United States. These agreements allegedly accomplished their purpose by reducing competition for Defendants’ senior-level employees and suppressing Defendants’ senior-level employees’ compensation below competitive levels. They also denied their senior-level employees’ access to job opportunities, restricted their mobility, and deprived them of significant information that they could have used to negotiate for better compensation and employment terms. Plaintiffs seek to damages recovery and injunctive relief to prevent Defendants from retaining the benefits of their alleged antitrust violations.

IN RE JUUL LABS, INC. ANTITRUST LITIGATION

3:20-cv-02345-WHO (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm is Interim Lead Counsel for Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs in e-cigarette antitrust lawsuits against Altria Group, Inc. (Altria) and Juul Labs, Inc. (JLI) on behalf of individuals and businesses who purchased JUUL e-cigarette devices directly from JLI. Plaintiffs and the Class seek damages recovery for violations of the Sherman and Clayton Acts. The e-cigarette antitrust claims stem from an allegedly anticompetitive agreement between Altria and JLI, whereby Altria agreed to acquire an ownership interest in JLI in exchange for over $12 billion. Altria also allegedly agreed not to compete with JLI and to provide JLI valuable retail shelf space in the e-cigarette market. Through this agreement, JLI was able to maintain its dominance in the e-cigarette market and earn monopoly profits. Altria then shared these profits through its ownership stake in JLI.

FOND DU LAC BUMPER EXCHANGE INC. V. JUI LI ENTERPRISE COMPANY LTD.

No. 2:09-cv-00852-LA (E.D. Wisc.)

The Firm represents a class of auto parts distributors who allege that Taiwanese manufacturers of aftermarket sheet metal auto parts colluded to artificially raise prices and eliminate competition. The Court has granted final approval to settlements by two Defendants totaling $25 million and has granted Plaintiffs’ motion for class certification.

CHIP TECH, LTD. V. AVX CORP.

No. 3:15-cv-03820-JD (N.D. Cal.)

The Firm is counsel for a putative class of direct purchasers of resistors used in electronic devices. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants formed a cartel and conspired to fix, raise, and stabilize prices in the multi-billion-dollar market for resistors.

MICROSOFT PRIVATE ANTITRUST LITIGATION

Representing businesses and consumers, Mr. Saveri prosecuted multiple private antitrust cases against Microsoft Corporation in state courts across the country, including Florida, New York, North Carolina, and Tennessee. Plaintiffs alleged that Microsoft engaged in anticompetitive conduct and/or violated state deceptive and unfair business practices statutes to harm competition and monopolize the markets for Intel-compatible, personal computer operating system software, as well as word processing and spreadsheet software. In 2006, the New York Supreme Court granted final approval to a settlement that made available up to $350 million in benefits for New York businesses and consumers. In 2004, the Court in the North Carolina action granted final approval to a settlement valued at over $89 million, and the Court in the Tennessee action granted final approval to a $64 million settlement. In 2003, in the Florida Microsoft litigation, the Court granted final approval to a $202 million settlement, one of the largest antitrust settlements in Florida history. Mr. Saveri served as Co-Lead Counsel in the New York, North Carolina, and Tennessee cases, and held leadership roles in the Florida case.

IN RE LUPRON MARKETING AND SALES PRACTICES LITIGATION

MDL No. 1430 (D. Mass.)

In 2005, the Court approved a settlement of a class action brought by patients, insurance companies, and health and welfare benefit plans that paid for Lupron, a prescription drug used to treat prostate cancer, endometriosis, and precocious puberty. The settlement requires the Defendants Abbott Laboratories, Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited, and TAP Pharmaceuticals to pay $150 million to persons or entities that paid for Lupron from January 1, 1985 through March 31, 2005. Plaintiffs charged that the Defendants conspired to overstate the drug's average wholesale price, which resulted in Plaintiffs paying more for Lupron than they should have paid. Mr. Saveri served as Co-Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel.

IN RE BUSPIRONE ANTITRUST LITIGATION

MDL No. 1413 (S.D.N.Y.)

In 2003, Mr. Saveri obtained a $90 million cash settlement for individual consumers, consumer organizations, and third-party payors that purchased BuSpar, a drug prescribed to alleviate symptoms of anxiety. Plaintiffs alleged that Bristol-Myers Squibb Co. (BMS), Danbury Pharmacal, Inc., Watson Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and Watson Pharma, Inc. entered into an unlawful agreement in restraint of trade under which BMS paid a potential generic manufacturer of BuSpar to drop its challenge to BMS's patent and refrain from entering the market.

CALIFORNIA VITAMIN CASES

J.C.C.P. No. 4076 (San Francisco County Sup. Ct.)

Mr. Saveri served as Co-Liaison Counsel and Co-Chairman of the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee on behalf of a class of California indirect vitamin purchasers (in every level of the chain of distribution) against vitamin manufacturers alleged to have engaged in price fixing of particular vitamins. In 2002, the Court granted final approval of a $96 million settlement with certain vitamin manufacturers. In 2006, the Court granted final approval to over $8.8 million in additional settlements.

PHARMACEUTICAL CASES I, II, AND III

J.C.C.P. Nos. 2969, 2971, and 2972 (San Francisco County Sup. Ct.)

Mr. Saveri served as Co-Lead and Co-Liaison Counsel representing a certified class of indirect purchasers (consumers) on claims against the major pharmaceutical manufacturers for violations of the Cartwright Act and the Unfair Competition Act. The class alleged that Defendants unlawfully fixed discriminatory prices on prescription drugs to retail pharmacists in comparison with the prices charged to certain favored purchasers, including HMOs and mail order houses. In 1999, the Court approved a settlement providing $148 million in free, brand-name prescription drugs to health agencies that serve California's poor and uninsured. In 2001, the Court approved a settlement with the remaining Defendants in the case, which provided an additional $23 million in free, brand-name prescription drugs to these agencies.

IN RE BRAND NAME PRESCRIPTION DRUGS

MDL No. 997 (N.D. Ill.)

Mr. Saveri served as Class Counsel for a class of tens of thousands of retail pharmacies against the leading pharmaceutical manufacturers and wholesalers of brand name prescription drugs for alleged price-fixing from 1989 to 1995 in violation of the federal antitrust laws. Class Plaintiffs charged that Defendants engaged in price discrimination against retail pharmacies by denying those discounts provided to hospitals, health maintenance organizations, and nursing homes. In 1996 and 1998, the Court approved settlements with certain manufacturers totaling $723 million.

IN RE ELECTRICAL CARBON PRODUCTS ANTITRUST LITIGATION

MDL No. 1514 (D.N.J.)

Mr. Saveri represented the City and County of San Francisco and a class of direct purchasers of carbon brushes and carbon collectors on claims that producers fixed the price of carbon brushes and carbon collectors in violation of the Sherman Act.

IN RE TRAVEL AGENCY COMMISSION ANTITRUST LITIGATION

MDL No. 1058 (D. Minn.)

Mr. Saveri served as Co-Lead Counsel for a certified class of U.S. travel agents on claims against the major U.S. air carriers, who allegedly violated the federal antitrust laws by fixing the commissions paid to travel agents. In 1997, the Court approved an $82 million settlement.

Judicial Praise for the Joseph Saveri Law Firm

“

Through my extensive observations of counsel, I am assured that they are well qualified to litigate this class action.... I have no hesitation that these lawyers will ‘fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class.’”

JUDGE NINA GERSHON,
In Re Restasis (Cyclosporine Ophthalmic Emulsion) Antitrust Litigation,
Master File No. 1:17-cv-06684-NG-LB (E.D.N.Y. 2020)

The MDL litigation has been hard-fought by both sides, and required an enormous amount of work to collect evidence in the United States and several overseas countries, bring and defend complex motions, and prepare a sprawling case for a jury trial. Class Counsel prosecuted the case with skill and vigor, and achieved strongly positive results. The Court also appreciated the professionalism and spirit of cooperation that Class Counsel brought to the proceedings.”

JUDGE JAMES DONATO,
In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, Master File No. 3:14-cv-03264-JD (N.D. Cal. 2020)

“

The docket and the procedural history in this case demonstrate Counsel’s expertise and the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs’ success to date. Counsel have done much to effectively prosecute the Class’s claims, and to do so efficiently. Counsel have not come by their success in this litigation easily. Defendants—including the Settling Defendants—have hired the best antitrust counsel money can buy to defend them against the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Sherman Act claims.”

JUDGE JAMES DONATO,
In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, Master File No. 3:14-cv-03264-JD (N.D. Cal. 2017)

“

Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Counsel vigorously and effectively pursued the Direct Purchasers’ claims. These efforts included factual investigation, drafting complaints, briefing and arguing motions to dismiss and for summary judgment, reviewing and analyzing documents, interviewing witnesses and taking dozens of depositions in the United States and abroad, negotiating the terms of the settlements, and preparing the settlement documents.”

JUDGE MARIANNE O. BATTANI,
In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation/In re Wire Harness Cases, Master File No. 12-md-02311
(E.D. Mich. 2017)

The Joseph Saveri Law Firm invested a great deal of time and effort to investigate and develop the potential claims in this action, and it filed the first complaint in this case as a result. . . . The Joseph Saveri Law Firm also has the support of many of the plaintiffs’ counsel, which the Court does find to be a significant factor in the Saveri Firm’s favor [for appointment to Interim Lead Class Counsel].”

JUDGE JAMES DONATO,

In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, Master File No. 3:14-cv-03264-JD (N.D. Cal. 2014)

“

As noted by the Plaintiffs: ‘Since their initial appointment, [the Joseph Saveri Law Firm and other interim co-lead and liaison counsel, and the Plaintiffs’ Executive Committee] . . . have devoted substantial time and resources to this case, including complex legal matters on a variety of motions, case management, discovery planning, and extensive meetings and conferrals with Defendants regarding ongoing discovery. Moreover, proposed Class Counsel have demonstrated their extensive experience and expertise prosecuting antitrust, class action, and complex civil litigation cases and have successfully litigated antitrust class actions and other similar cases in courts throughout the United States.’ Defendants do not object or disagree with the Plaintiffs’ characterization of their representation. This Court has reviewed the [Federal Rules of Civil Procedure] Rule 23(g)(1) requirements, and concludes that Plaintiffs’ proposed co-lead counsel are well qualified to represent the Class in this case.”

JUDGE RICHARD D. BENNETT,

In re Titanium Dioxide Antitrust Litigation, Civil Action No. RDB –10–0318, 284 F.R.D. 328 (D. Md. 2012), amended, 962 F. Supp. 2d 840 (D. Md. 2013).

Joseph R Saveri

Mr. Saveri began his career performing general litigation work at the San Francisco law firm of McCutchen, Doyle, Brown & Enersen. In 1992, he joined the plaintiffs' firm Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein (LCHB), where he was the firm's Managing Partner and established its antitrust and intellectual property practice, which was recognized in 2012 as one of the top five practice groups in California. He left LCHB in May 2012 to start his own firm.

Mr. Saveri has performed virtually every aspect of complex and class action litigation, including factual and economic analysis of market conditions and pricing practices, drafting of pleadings, law and motion matters, organizing e-discovery, creating a discovery plan, administering and directing on-line review of documents requiring coordination of dozens of lawyers fluent in English and foreign languages, propounding written discovery, taking and defending percipient and expert witness depositions, organizing the factual record, briefing and arguing summary judgment, and leading trial and appellate work.

From 2010 through 2013, Mr. Saveri was chosen to serve as a Lawyer Representative for the United States District Court for the Northern District of California and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. He has served and serves on several court committees charged with developing rules and programs regarding complex litigation, e-discovery, and a variety of other matters. He was chosen to serve as a member of the Northern District's Civil Rules Advisory Committee from 2009-2012, the committee to establish rules and procedures for expedited trials (which the Court adopted as General Order No. 64, "Expedited Trial Procedures"), and the committee which crafted new e-discovery rules and procedures later adopted by the Court. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the Bar Association of San Francisco.

Mr. Saveri is also a frequent author of articles on antitrust and complex litigation issues, and a frequent lecturer on a variety of matters, including antitrust, complex litigation, class action practice, and discovery. He serves as an author of California Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law, the legal treatise published by the State Bar of California's Antitrust and Unfair Competition Section. He is also a member of the Advisory Board of the American Antitrust Institute and a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America. In 2019, he was a speaker at the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division's public roundtable to discuss the Antitrust Criminal Penalty Enhancement & Reform Act.

Mr. Saveri has received numerous ACCOLADES from an array of legal entities, including:

Steven N Williams

In over twenty-five years of practice, Mr. Williams has handled successfully and with distinction all aspects of litigation and trial in state and federal courts and in private arbitration.

Mr. Williams has played a lead role in many of the most prominent antitrust class cases litigated in the United States over the last decade, including In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation, In re Static Random Access Memory Litigation, Precision Associates v. Panalpina World Transport, and In re Transpacific Air Transportation Litigation. Over the last decade he has been named lead or co-lead counsel in more antitrust cases than perhaps any other attorney in the United States. He has helped recover more than $2 billion and has been responsible for new law including ground-breaking decisions narrowing the scope of the Filed Rate Doctrine and permitting civil damage claims in E. & J. Gallo Winery v. EnCana Corp., 503 F.3d 1027 (2007) and Wortman v. All Nippon Airways, 854 F.3d 606 (2017), and a ruling that “umbrella damages” are available under California state law. County of San Mateo v. CSL, Ltd., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 116342 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 20, 2014).

Mr. Williams—previously a long-time partner at Cotchett, Pitre & McCarthy, LLP—practices in the fields of litigation, trial, and client counseling, with an emphasis on representation of civil plaintiffs in antitrust matters. He has served in leadership positions in more than a dozen antitrust class cases throughout the United States. During his career, he has represented claimants in cases involving memory chips, pharmaceuticals, air passenger transportation, air cargo transportation, cathode ray tubes, capacitors, resistors, flash memory, lithium-ion batteries, financial products and services, poultry, and water. He has been appointed to represent both classes and individuals. In non-class cases he has represented the Chief Justice of California, the Judicial Council of California, Consumers Union of United States, Inc., the United Farm Workers, Dolores Huerta, public pension funds, private investment funds, many cities and counties of California, public utilities including water districts, and individual consumers.

Among other cases, Mr. Williams currently represents a Plaintiff Class of content moderators, responsible for viewing and removing offensive and disturbing content from Facebook users, who are allegedly suffering from PTSD and other trauma-related injuries because they were not being properly protected by the social media company. In 2020, the Class reached a ground-breaking preliminary settlement for $52 million and workplace improvements.

Mr. Williams has written and lectured on various topics including antitrust, multidistrict litigation, complex litigation, e-discovery, MTBE litigation, regulatory developments in environmental law, contractual issues in environmental cleanups, and habeas corpus. He has spoken at many venues, including the American Bar Association Antitrust Section Spring Meeting, the California State Bar Antitrust, UCL and Privacy Section, the New York State Bar Association Antitrust Section, and yearly presentations on civil discovery topics to the Consumer Attorneys of California.

Mr. Williams is the author or co-author of several publications, including: “A Practitioner’s Perspective: Why The Supreme Court Should Not Overturn Illinois Brick in Apple v. Pepper,” Competition, The Journal of the Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section of the California Lawyers Association; “Should United States Courts Defer to Foreign Governments?,” Chambers and

Mr. Williams was appointed by the Consumer Attorneys of California as a member of the California Discovery Subcommittee for revision of California discovery rules and statutes relating to e-discovery and electronically stored information, 2007-2008. He is currently in leadership for the American Bar Association Antitrust Section and is a member of the International Cartel Task Force and the Executive Committee of the Committee to Support the Antitrust Laws. He is an advisor to the Executive Committee of the California Lawyers Association Section on Antitrust, Unfair Competition Law, and Privacy Law, and was chair of the 2017 Golden State Antitrust Institute. He is a Board Member of Public Justice and past Chairman of the Board of Community Gatepath, an organization dedicated to serving the needs of developmentally disabled children and adults. He received the Justice & Diversity Center (JDC) of the Bar Association of San Francisco's Federal Pro Bono Project 2020 Crystal Award for "Outstanding Volunteer of the Year," and in 2018 the JDC recognized him as an "Outstanding Volunteer."

Mr. Williams has received numerous professional ACCOLADES, including:

American Antitrust Institute: Honoree for Antitrust Enforcement Awards for "Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement in Private Law Practice" for his key role in In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation (2019)

Ms. Spiegel has over two decades of experience litigating and managing all phases of complex antitrust litigation from filing through trial, with a special focus on e-discovery negotiation and case management. She is also a go-to person in the industry regarding translation issues and the use of foreign-language evidence. Her approach to complex case litigation is both substantive and pragmatic. She has a deep understanding of the legal issues and facts involved in her cases, but also strives to set up an efficient framework at the outset of each case so that the case can run smoothly and the best possible result for clients and plaintiff-classes can be achieved.

Ms. Spiegel comes to the Firm after 16 years at Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP, where she was a partner since 2013. While there, she focused on representing direct purchasers and end-consumers, and played key roles in some of the largest price-fixing, monopolization, and complex litigation cases in the country. Some of her most notable cases included leadership and management of: In re DRAM Antitrust Litigation, In re SRAM Antitrust Litigation, In re Cathode Ray Tube Antitrust Litigation, In re TFT-LCD (Flat Panel) Antitrust Litigation, In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation, In re Containerboard Antitrust Litigation, In re McKesson Corp. Shareholder Derivative Litigation, In re Apple iPhone Litigation, and In re Google Android Litigation.

Ms. Spiegel also previously worked as an associate at Spector, Roseman & Kodroff, where she helped develop the firm's antitrust practice and managed its North Carolina office. While there, she played a significant role in several landmark cases, including: In re Brand Name Prescription Drugs Antitrust Litigation, In re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, In re High Fructose Corn Syrup Antitrust Litigation, In re Commercial Tissue Paper Antitrust Litigation, and In re Flat Glass Antitrust Litigation.

Ms. Spiegel has received many accolades during her legal career, including being selected as The National Trial Lawyers: Top 100 and by Lawdragon as one of its 500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers (2019-present).

Ms. Spiegel is a member of the American Bar Association's Antitrust Section, the Sedona Conference, Working Group 1, and was a member of the drafting team for the Sedona Conference's revised Rule 45 Commentary (published October 2020). She is a current participant in Ladder Down, a networking, mentoring, and executive training program for women leaders in the Seattle legal community. She is also a former Board Member of the MAMAS organization, a resource and networking organization in Seattle for those trying to balance motherhood and a legal career.

Ms. Reddy's practice focuses primarily on antitrust class actions alleging anticompetitive conduct such as price-fixing and monopolization. She represents businesses and individuals in complex civil litigation throughout the country. In addition to her antitrust practice, she has represented whistleblowers in qui tam matters and False Claims Act litigation against companies that have committed fraud against the government. She approaches her practice with diversity of thought, enthusiasm, and diligence.

Ms. Reddy's professional qualifications are exemplified by her invaluable work on the Capacitors case and trial. She was heavily involved in pre-trial matters, including drafting pre-trial filings and arguing pre-trial motions. She had an active role in trial strategy, trial stagecraft, preparing and examining witnesses, and presenting evidence to the jury. Prior to trial, she drafted and argued dispositive motions in relation to summary judgment, attorney costs and fees, and opt-out matters.

In addition to her duties for the Firm, Ms. Reddy volunteers for the Federal Pro Bono Project of the Bar Association of San Francisco. She currently represents a Plaintiff in a wrongful termination matter against a multinational corporation, in the Northern District of California.

Ms. Reddy graduated from Berkeley Law with a specialization in intellectual property law. She was an associate editor of the Berkeley Technology Law Journal, and the promoter and social co-chair of the student-led organization, Women in Tech Law. At Symbiosis Law School in India, she was awarded the American jurisprudence equivalent award for the Law of Evidence.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Reddy was a Law Clerk in the Antitrust Section of the California Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General (San Francisco), where she reviewed documents, conducted legal research, and drafted memoranda for investigations and litigation involving pharmaceutical and oil and gas companies. In Mumbai, India, she was Legal Counsel for Cipla Limited, where she specialized in contracts and mergers and acquisitions.

Ms. Reddy has been honored as one of the "Rising Stars of the Plaintiffs Bar" in the National Law Journal's 2021 Elite Trial Lawyer Awards. Also, in 2021, The Legal 500 named her as a "Rising Star" in the "United States Antitrust Civil Litigation/Class Actions: Plaintiff" category, and Super Lawyers selected her as a Northern California "Rising Star" in the antitrust litigation practice area. In 2020, she was selected as an Honoree by the American Antitrust Institute for its 2020 Antitrust Enforcement Awards for Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement by a Young Lawyer. She earned this prestigious award for her key role in In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Cal.).

Mr. Young specializes in antitrust and class action litigation. He approaches his practice with a diligent and creative attitude while providing clients with high-quality legal representation.

Mr. Young's professional qualifications are exemplified by his invaluable work on the 2020 In Re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation trial. He was heavily involved in pre-trial matters, including drafting pre-trial filings and conducting pre-trial depositions. He has also been actively involved in the trial, including providing essential support and preparation for the examination of key witnesses and presenting evidence to the jury.

In addition to his duties for the Firm, Mr. Young volunteers for the Federal Pro Bono Project of the Bar Association of San Francisco. He currently represents a Plaintiff in a lawsuit asserting both federal and state causes of actions against park rangers seeking civil recovery for alleged violations of several of the Plaintiff's constitutional rights by the Defendant park rangers. The Plaintiff asserts, among other claims, violations of his Fourth and Fifth Amendment rights against unreasonable searches and seizures and the use of excessive force. In 2021, he was one of the speakers at a webinar co-sponsored by the Bar Association of San Francisco's Justice and Diversity Center, the Asian Law Alliance, and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California: "What Can I Do as a Pro Bono Attorney in the Northern District?"

Before joining the Firm, Mr. Young was a law clerk for Associate Justice Lamar W. Baker of the California Second District Court of Appeal, Division Five, where he drafted opinions on various issues. In addition, he cite-checked and record-checked drafts and separate opinions for circulation to other chambers, proofread opinions prior to filing, and observed oral arguments to assist Justice Baker in making decisions. Prior to this, he was a post-bar fellow at the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office, where he drafted motions, conducted legal research, interviewed clients, and assisted with trial efforts.

While attending law school at UCLA, Mr. Young was an Associate Editor of the UCLA Law Review and participated in the 2016 American Red Cross Clara Barton International Humanitarian Law Competition, where his team was awarded "Best Overall Team Research and Writing." In addition, he worked as a certified legal intern for the San Diego County Public Defender's Office and focused on complex securities fraud cases, represented clients at arraignment, and participated heavily in a trial, including examination of witnesses.

In 2021, Mr. Young was selected by Super Lawyers as a Northern California "Rising Star" in the antitrust litigation practice area.

Mr. Young is a member of the American Bar Association, the Bar Association of San Francisco, and the Los Angeles County Bar Association. He also volunteers his time for the local San Francisco community. He has given talks with local organizations to youth interested in a future legal career and has volunteered as an essay reviewer for students currently applying to colleges.

Ms. Murdock specializes in class action, antitrust, and business litigation. She brings her extensive litigation experience to her current position with the Firm where she performs an integral role in analyzing probative documents of clients and participants to identify merits of claims, potential witnesses, and key evidence in complex class actions.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Murdock was a litigator at two major law firms and of counsel at a Los Angeles boutique litigation firm. She has a successful appellate and business litigation background and has crafted winning motions and appeals throughout her career. Her respondents' brief for United States Supreme Court case Musick, Peeler & Garrett v. Employers Insurance of Wausau, 508 U.S. 286 (1993), was affirmed in favor of her clients. Another appeal was also affirmed with the California Court of Appeal, which adopted, in entirety, the arguments proffered in her respondent's brief. She won an appeal in a case that had been ongoing for nine years and had been before the California Supreme Court three times. And she had a new trial motion and a judgment notwithstanding the verdict motion granted, overturning a $3.7 million verdict in a case of first impression interpreting a California statute.

Ms. Murdock also has a substantial intellectual property background. As an IP associate, she worked on various copyright matters and won a partial summary judgment in the Ninth Circuit in a "work for hire" case involving a major rock star. She had a temporary restraining order granted in a trademark dispute involving a well-known leisure-wear manufacturer, and successfully opposed a preliminary injunction in a trade secrets/submission of ideas case before the Second Circuit.

While attending law school, Ms. Murdock was named to the Moot Court Team and won both the Moot Court Best Brief Award and the West Publishing Company Award for Outstanding Brief Writing. She thereafter honed her writing skills clerking for Presiding Justice Joan Dempsey Klein of the California Court of Appeal. Although she originally had a one-year clerkship, after seven months she was asked to stay on as senior attorney and became one of the most junior attorneys ever selected for that position.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Murdock worked in the Mayor's Office of Los Angeles and the City Community Development Department. In those positions she researched and analyzed city ordinances and federal HUD proposals; authored reports for proposed city legislation; and made legislation recommendations to the city council.

Ms. Murdock is a member of the American Bar Association.

Professor Davis has been involved in class actions in general and in antitrust class actions for over twenty years. He was a partner at Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein LLP until he joined the law faculty of the University of San Francisco School of Law, where he is currently the Director of its Center for Law and Ethics after serving 2013-2017 as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Professor Davis is one of the foremost scholars in the country on private antitrust enforcement and class certification in antitrust cases. He has done award-winning original empirical and theoretical analysis of private antitrust cases, and his scholarship has been cited by federal appellate and trial courts. He has published dozens of law review articles on such topics as private antitrust enforcement, class certification, legal ethics, jury instructions, and injunctive relief, as well as on free speech doctrine, jurisprudence, and artificial intelligence and the law.

Professor Davis has been retained by plaintiffs' counsel to brief and argue before federal appellate courts in antitrust cases. He has also briefed and argued motions to dismiss, for class certification, to exclude expert testimony, and for summary judgment in Magnetic Iron Oxide Antitrust Litigation, Truck Card Antitrust Litigation, In re Lidoderm Antitrust Litigation, In re Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, In re Restasis Antitrust Litigation, and Le v. Zuffa, among other cases.

Professor Davis regularly presents at academic conferences on civil procedure, class certification, legal ethics, class action ethics, antitrust litigation, and artificial intelligence and the law. He has made presentations, among other places, at the Northern District of California Judicial Conference, the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division, the California Department of Justice, the American Bar Association, the American Antitrust Institute, the Bar Association of San Francisco, the Federal Bar Association, the Practising Law Institute, the Pound Institute, the International Legal Ethics Conference, and various law schools.

Professor Davis regularly provides legal commentary in print, radio and television media. He helped organize the 2019 and 2020 releases of the Antitrust Report: Class Action Filings in Federal Court, issued by The Huntington National Bank and the University of San Francisco School of Law, which surveyed the antitrust field of recent years. In 2019, he also spoke at the University of Haifa's (Israel) 3rd International Conference: Dispute Resolution of Consumer Mass Disputes, Collective Redress, Class Action, and ADR. He has testified before Congress on civil procedure and was the reporter for the task force and committee that drafted the California Supreme Court rules governing multijurisdictional practice. He also serves on the Board of the American Antitrust Institute.

Professor Davis serviced as a law clerk to Patrick Higginbotham of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. During law school at New York University, he received the Frank H. Sommer Award for top general scholarship and achievement in class and was Senior Articles Editor of the New York University Law Review.
